Hinds' Feet on High Places is an allegorical novel by Hannah Hurnard. It is the story of a young woman, Much-Afraid, and her journey away from her Fearing family and into the High Places of the Shepherd, guided by her two companions Sorrow and Suffering. It is an allegory of a Christian devotional life. The title is taken from Habakkuk 3:19, "The Lord God is my strength, and he will make my feet like hinds' feet, and he will make me to walk upon mine high places." Hannah Hurnard is a twentieth century Christian author born in Colchester, England to Quaker parents. She graduated from Ridglands Bible College of Great and became an independent missionary, moving to Haifa, Israel. Her work in Israel lasted 50 years. Hurnard's early writings, especially Hinds' Feet on High Places and the sequel Mountain of Spice, were embraced by the mainstream Christian community, but later on in her life she seems to have departed from orthodoxy.

Designed to accompany the Hinds' Feet on High Places allegory, Hinds' Feet on High Places: A Daily Devotional for Women was penned by a woman who has proven her walk with the Lord and her writing gift with other inspirational books, including You Can Be the Wife of a Happy Husband and the 1999 release, You Can Be the Happy Mom of an Empty Nest. Most of these devotions are "quiet time" meditations, ones that will draw you closer to your Lord Jesus. They will help you to understand your own struggles and regain confidence in your walk with the Lord. I know that you sense Him drawing you ever nearer to Him. That's why you are considering this devotional. Some of you even feel your heart aching for more of His Presence in you life. This devotional will help satisfy the yearning of your heart. He is challenging you to keep saying "yes" to your Lord as He beckons you on in your own journey to the High Places. Parts of this book were previously published as Hind's Feet on High Places: The Original and Complete Allegory with a Devotional for Women.
