CPCAB qualifications and service levels. 1Counselling skills are used by people in many different roles that do not involve formal counselling relationships. 2CPCAB recognises that there is no clear dividing line between counselling and psychotherapy - particularly in longer term work with clients. 3Moderate mental health problems include people experiencing psychological difficulties which do not restrict or impede the person from managing their own social life and health care.

The CPCAB Service Levels Framework. The practitioner helps the person to clarify, and then work towards, their therapeutic goals but the achievement of those goals is dependent on where the person is starting from and the associated level of therapeutic change that may be required. A person's starting point is their capacity to cope with the problems in their life - their openness to, and their resilience in the face of, relationship difficulties, life stage challenges and personal ...
